Washington Loan Originator License Number: 510-LO-____

Washington Administrative Code (WAC) WAC 208-660-270 requires Designated Brokers to complete courses from a list provided by the Washington Department of Financial Institutions (DFI). Designated Brokers must complete three courses annually from DFI's approved list. Attending three mortgage broker commission meetings within a calendar year can count as one continuing education course.

Please list below the name of the course provider, the course title and the date you completed the course. If you attended mortgage broker commission meetings in lieu of a continuing education course, please list the two approved classes you took and list "mortgage broker commission meeting" as the Provider Name for your other entry, followed by the dates of the three commission meetings you attended during the year.
